In no event shall the Buyer be liable for any special, indirect, incidental, consequential, or economic damages (including, but not limited to lost profits and lost business opportunity), regardless of the legal theory under which such damages are sought, and even if the parties have been advised of the possibility of such damages.

Article 25. RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES

Seller shall remain an independent contractor, responsible for its own employees, property, liabilities and expenses. Buyer and Seller shall not be in a fiduciary relationship with each other and only those obligations stated in this Purchase Order shall exist. Article 26. WARRANTIES

This Purchase Order incorporates the terms of FAR 52.246-20 WARRANTY OF SERVICES (MAY 2001) as set forth below:

- (a) Definition. "Acceptance," as used in this clause, means the act of an authorized representative of the Buyer by which the Buyer assumes for itself, or as an agent of another, ownership of existing and identified supplies, or approves specific services, as partial or complete performance of the contract.
- (b) Notwithstanding inspection and acceptance by the Buyer (the acceptance period from the Buyer shall be identified on each authorized Purchase Order) or any provision concerning the conclusiveness thereof, the Seller warrants that all services performed under this contract will, at the time of acceptance, be free from defects in workmanship and conform to the requirements of this contract. The Buyer shall give written notice of any defect or nonconformance to the Seller within 30 calendar days from the date of acceptance by the Buyer. This notice shall state either—
 - (1) That the Seller shall correct or re-perform any defective or nonconforming services; or
 - (2) That the Buyer does not require correction or re-performance.

(c) If the Seller is required to correct or re-perform, it shall be at no cost to the Buyer, and any services corrected or re-performed by the Seller shall be subject to this clause to the same extent as work initially performed. If the Seller fails or refuses to correct or re-perform, the Buyer may, by contract or otherwise, correct or replace with similar services and charge to the Seller the cost occasioned to the Buyer thereby, or make an equitable adjustment in the contract price.

(d) If the Buyer does not require correction or re-performance, the Buyer shall make an equitable adjustment in the contract price.

The aforementioned shall survive the delivery, inspection and acceptance, and payment by the Buyer.

Article 27. DISPUTES

During the period of this Purchase Order, the Parties shall exercise their best efforts to settle all disputes by agreement. Buyer and Seller agree that time is of the essence with respect to this Agreement; consequently, any disagreements should be resolved promptly and at the lowest level possible. Normally, the resolution process by method and in escalating order includes discussion or meetings between disagreeing individuals; meetings between organization representatives of disagreeing individuals, elevated depending on severity of problem and position of disagreeing individuals, to include meetings between the Presidents and/or Chief Executive Officers of each Party; and finally, litigation.

All disputes between the parties arising from or related to this Purchase Order shall be litigated in either the Circuit Court of Chesapeake, Virginia or the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, Norfolk Division. All matters involving the federal government shall be construed and interpreted by Federal Law. The Buyer and Seller irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of such courts, and further agree not to object to jurisdiction and venue of such court, and further agree not to object to jurisdiction or venue based on inconvenience, lack of personal jurisdiction or similar grounds. THE SELLER WAIVES ANY REQUEST FOR A JURY IN SUCH ACTION.

The prevailing Party in any proceeding will be entitled to, in addition to any other relief granted, recover its reasonable costs and attorney's fees.

With respect to any claim made by the Seller for which the Customer is or may be liable, the Seller agrees that it will prepare its claim and will timely present it to the Buyer for submission to the Customer, at the Seller's sole expense, under the Contract Disputes Act of 1978, the Disputes clause of the Prime Contract, or any other disputes resolution provisions of the Prime Contract. Provided that the Seller bears all expense of doing so, the Buyer will cooperate with the Seller in sponsoring and submitting such claim to the Customer and will execute all documents which are necessary in order to pursue such claim on behalf of the Seller and will pay to the Seller any amounts recovered on the Seller's claim, less any expenses incurred by the Buyer in prosecuting the Seller's claim including, but not limited to, attorney, consultant and expert witness fees and expenses and the Buyer's mark-up. The Buyer shall not have any obligation, however, to sponsor, submit or prosecute a claim by the Seller that the Buyer does not in good faith believe meets all applicable requirements pertaining to the submission of claims to the Government. The Seller agrees that it will bear all the costs, including legal, expert and consultant fees and expenses, necessary to pursue such a claim against the Government, and that the remedy set forth in this Article 27 shall be the Seller's sole and exclusive remedy in lieu of any other claim against the Buyer.

Pending final decision on any dispute under this Article, Seller agrees to diligently proceed with performance.

41 C.F.R. 60-300 contains a clause required in every Federal invitation to bid or contract for $150,000 or more for the procurement of personal property and non-personal services (including construction), and every Purchase Order entered into in carrying out such contract, The clause which is included herein by reference (and which should be referred to in its entirety), requires among other things, that all suitable employment openings of the Contractor which exist at the time of the execution of the contract and those which occur during the performance of the contract, including those not generated by the contract and those occurring at an establishment of the Contractor other than the one wherein the contract is being performed but excluding those of independently operated corporate affiliates, shall be offered for listing at an appropriate local office of the State employment service system wherein the opening occurs and to provide such reports to such local office regarding employment openings and hires as may be required. The Contractor agrees to and certifies that it is in compliance with the above provision and that it will place it in any Purchase Order of $100,000 or more directly under this contract. Further, if required, the Contractor will annually file a VETS-100A Report.

The Equal Opportunity Clause may be put into Purchase Orders by reference, but only by citing the Equal Opportunity Clause in the regulations and including the following sentences in bold text: This contractor and subcontractor shall abide by the requirements of 41 CFR 60-300.5(a). This regulation prohibits discrimination against qualified protected veterans and requires affirmative action by covered prime contractors and subcontractors to employ and advance in employment qualified protected veterans.
